

SHORT REPORT

Provincial Training Session "Peace & Human Rights Through Education": was arranged in Government District Institute for Educational Training (DIET) in Nellore on 21-12-2018. 276 students who are perusing the educational degree attended the training. Their teachers also actively participated. This is unique experience for them. After the educational degree students will join various educational Institute/school/colleges and teach Human rights to their students.

DEIT College comprises two years study of Education for 1st and 2nd year. 50 students are admitted for 1st year and 50 students for 2nd year, in one medium. There are 3 medium of teaching instruction. English, Telegu and Urdu. There are total 300 students. out of which 276 participated in Human rights training.

Venketswara Reddy Principal DIET College, Sudhkar Rao, Coordinator DIET College . Subba Rao, In-charge students activities, Krishna Reddy, Convenor, Pinaki Satyagraha Gandhi Ashram. Professor Y. Choudhary from Madras University, Mrs. Gudur Laxmi, Secretary, International Committee of Red Cross, Nellore Branch .India prominently attended and address the participants.

Dr. Balkriishna Kurvey, EIP India in his introductory address inform the meaning of EIP. It is a French word meaning World Association for School as an Instrument of Peace, is a international non-governmental organization ,devoted to teaching of Human Rights and Peace. It is founded by a Swiss person, Jacques Mulhethaler. He founded EIP with his friends and set down Universal principle of civil Education. He also informed about the cifedhop. India is a largest democracy in world and human rights in every walks of life essential for development, democracy and peace.

EIP India started working since 1995 under the guidance of eip International . EIP-India arranged 6 National Training and more than 36 Provincial training session seminars/workshop for teachers, NGOs, government official, student in many cities in India.

Krishna Reddy, Convenor, Pinakini Satyagraha Gandhi Ashram (This is one of the most important Ashram of Mahatma Gandhi from where he started Salt Satyagraha (non-disobedience) peaceful movement against mighty British empire.) He narrated the principles of Gandhi for peace and human rights. Gandhi was of the opinion that human rights of men/women as well as animals must be protected. It is immediate need in India to educate future citizens as well as teachers for human rights which will pave the way for development, democracy and peace. He narrated many examples of Gandhi's life, wherein he observed Human Rights as well as propagated human rights. He thanks EIP-International as well as EIP India for arranging such important training session in Nellore, India.

Mrs. Gudur Laxmi, Secretary, International Committee of Red Cross, Nellore Branch, India cited many examples that ICRC cooperated with Human Rights organizations in the world and they may be cooperating with EIP-International as both are based in Geneva. ICRC is one of the organizations worldwide who are propagating human rights. This training session will certainly enhance the knowledge of students and teachers of Government District Institute of Education training (DIET)..

After the Lunch break Dr. Balkrishna Kurvey with power point presentation, informed the participants articles of Human rights in detail.

Workshop was arranged for the participants who took great interest and put forward their views.

In Question & Answers Session delegates ask many questions which were rightly answered by the organizer.

After distribution of certificate, one day Training Session concluded.